VARIETY

100% Cabernet Sauvignon

VINEYARD LOCATION

Uco Valley, Agrelo and Perdriel.

HARVEST

This wine results from the combination of grapes from different areas: one part comes from vineyards in the Uco Valley, another from Agrelo and Perdriel. The vineyards are trained with trellises, and they are over 12 years old. The soils are rocky, providing good drainage, allowing good root development and an excellent vegetative/productive balance.

WINEMAKING

Fermentation is carried out in concrete tanks.

Fermentation work is concentrated in the first part of the process, as defined by sample tasting. Working temperatures are low, achieving a slow and controlled fermentation, prioritizing the intensity of fruity flavors.

Forty percent of the wine is aged for 4 to 6 months in barrels.

TASTING NOTES

Bright red color, with aromas of red berries and roasted peppers, and a smooth structure on the palate.

It may contain natural sediments, due to its gentle filtration process.
